Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

This is in response to amendment filed 05/18/05.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 43-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hawkins (US 20010032254).

Regarding claim 43, Hawkins discloses: a communication device (100, fig. 1) for accessing a server accessible via a proxy (180, fig. 1), a device comprising a transceiver (170, fig. 1) and a browser (104, fig. 1), the transceiver establishing a session with a proxy, the proxy providing access to the server wherein the browser is operable to retrieve first content from the server together with further content linked to the first content by making a request generated by the browser (paragraph 0384, Hawkins).

Regarding claim 44, all the limitations of this claim have been noted in the rejection of claim 43 above. In addition, Hawkins discloses further including a memory in which the retrieved content is stored (0106, Hawkins).

Regarding claim 45, all the limitations of this claim have been noted in the rejection of claim 43 above. In addition, Hawkins discloses: wherein the browser retrieves the further content from a further server (0384, Hawkins).

Regarding claim 46, all the limitations of this claim have been noted in the rejection of claim 43 above. In addition, Hawkins discloses: wherein the browser is selectively operable to retrieve the further content (0384, Hawkins).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 24-42 are allowed in light of the applicant arguments and in light of the prior art made of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record failed to disclose: make obvious, or otherwise suggest : a cellular communication terminal for fetching content from at least one server, the terminal comprising: wherein a copy of the first content and a copy of the link content is fetched simultaneously upon a request generated by the browser application, the request is sent through the transmitter as a data packet, comprising an instruction to the server to send a copy of the first content from a given location in the server, indicated by the access point, together with a copy of the link content, simultaneously as recited in claims 24, 32 and 36.

The dependent claims 25-31, 33-35 and 37-42, being further limiting to the independent claims 24, 32 and 36 definite and fully enable by the specification are also allowed.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
